

The Oak 1953

SILVER ANNIVERSARY EDITION

The Oak

ROYAL OAK HIGH SCHOOL
ROYAL OAK, MICHIGAN

We, the June graduating class of 1953, are proud to dedicate our Oak to you, Mr. Mead. All through our high school days Mr. Mead has been willing to help us through our many problems. Those of us who had him for English 5 will always remember the help we received from him on our many speeches. When the time finally arrived for our final ten minute speeches he was always willing to go all out in order to help us.

The many senior plays he helped sponsor would never had been a success without his patience in putting up with us. The few of us that had him for a homeroom teacher will always remember all the noise that went on during the P.A. announcements. He always has a kind word and smile for everyone. Because he helped to promote friendliness among the students and faculty, we are proud to give him the recognition which he so rightly deserves.

MR. JAMES MEAD

Dedication

Class Officers

ROBERT SHARP

President

No door will be locked before him. For he holds the key to leadership, persuasion, and personality.

GAIL McCLUSKY Sec'y.

To determine her qualities on a scale; no one quite measures up to Gail.

ERIC MITTLESTADT, Treas.

Salutatorian

Knowledge is, indeed, that which, next to virtue, truly and essentially raises one man above another.

MONA JORDAN

Valedictorian

God has placed no limit to intellect and kindness.

LAWRENCE RATTNER,

Vice-President

Who mixed reason with pleasure and wisdom with mirth.

CLASS MOTTO:

We have crossed the bay:
The ocean lies before us.

CLASS FLOWER:

White Rose

CLASS COLORS:

Blue and White

LARRY ADAMS

He knows what he knows,
And what he doesn't know he'll soon learn.

MARILYN ADAMS

She's neither very shy nor very bold: but just a girl as good as gold.

MARLENE ALBERTS

Always full of fun, popular with everyone.

VIRGINIA ALCINI

Cheers to the nicest girl
we know.

Best always to a real student under classroom hope you for fun as a side: Jim

you will ever find.

PATRICIA BALLARD

Quiet ways are always admired.

JAY BARBAS

Friends, Romans, Countrymen, lend me your girls.

BRADLEY BARNES

Ambition, Ability, Success.
A terrific threesome for Brad to possess.

ROBERT BARRETT

His eyes are dark and roving—Just a wolf in sheep's clothing.

ANN BARTELD

Her pretty looks and pretty smile, are accentuated by dimples that beguile.

JUDITH BAUR

Small in size, but never shirking duty; A friendly girl, a swell girl is Judy.

AARON BELL

Always a smile for everyone, a soft-spoken gentleman.

JUNE BERTELL

A winning smile has June,
As bright as the sun, as clear as the moon.

A continual smile for everyone.

RAYMOND ELLIOTT
Every inch a man.

SUZANNE ELLIS Mind cannot follow it, nor words express her infinite sweetness.

CYNTHIA ELY
The more original, the better

CONSTANCE EMERY
Her changing moods are a puzzle to me; but what is life without variety?

MARY LOU ERICKSON
The hand that hath made you fair hath made you good.

STEWART FALL
What a guy! ! !

SUE FECHHEIMER
You'll travel many a mile, to find as sunny a disposition, as witty a mind.

MARGARET FETZER
Not that I like work less, but fun more.

FREDERICK FINNEY
No man has time to practice all he preaches.

LEONARD GELL
He could break a dozen hearts—if he'd but give us a chance.

DALE GIERTHY
The force of his own merit makes his way.

DONALD GMELIN Ambition has no rest for an energetic lad.

PRISCILLA GODDARD

True expression like the unchanging sun clears and improves whate'er it shines upon.

CLAUDIA WERNER

Entered here to learn, she'll go forth to serve.

GEORGE WESTFALL

To worry is folly; let's smile and be jolly.

RICHARD WHEELER

Don't disturb my dream!

MARGARET WHITING

Could there possibly be anyone sweeter?

FRANCES WILLIAMS

Let her own work praise her.

JEANETTE WILLIAMS

May she change nothing but her name.

SANDRA WILLIAMS

She sings a beautiful song

CAROL WILLS

It's nice to be natural when you're naturally nice.

ANTHONY WILSON

Give me the simple pleasures of life, That's all I ask for.

BEVERLY WILSON

Lovely and delightful to know.

JENNY WILSON

Not too serious—not too gay—but very charming in her very original way.

JOAN WILSON

She'll always add to her list of friends.

LOIS WINDVER

Her voice was ever soft, her song clever; her looks cute; her personality sincere.

OWEN WINNIE

It isn't the size of the man in the fight that counts, it's the size of the fight in the man

DIANE WOODARD

Fair tresses man's imperial race ensnare, and charm draws us with a single hair.

SHARON WOODARD

Women have only one role
—their own charm.

BARBARA WOOLARD

Goodness in all it's glory.

SHIRLEY WORDEN

On any subject she's really hep; A cute girl just full of pep.

RICHARD WRIGHT

A regular guy we all agree.

it must be born

HENRY ZURBURG

A man of great height and ability to match.

BARBARA ZWAR

Good nature is the proper soil upon which Virtue grows.

GERALD TOENNIGES

Live while you're living for you'll be a long time dead.

MRS E. LAND
HR-106

Having spent 35 years of teaching in Royal Oak, Mrs. Mina Land is going to be leaving us. Mrs. Land graduated from Lowell High School in Lowell, Michigan in 1903. She then attended University of Michigan and graduated from there in 1908.

She participated in quite a few activities while in college consisting of being active in dramatics and being on the staff of the Michigan Daily. She moved to Royal Oak in 1910. Before teaching in Royal Oak she taught in Lansing and in Highland Park. Entering Royal Oak she has taught mainly English and Latin.

She has also taken an active part as the sponsor of the Latin Club and has kept the club going. Most all of us will remember her and her classes and even though they were hard, we will have to admit we enjoyed them and the help she gave us in the years that she has been here.

Camera Shy

RICHARD BARROW

Nothing succeeds like success

THELMA MARTIN

There is no greater delight than to be conscious of sincerity on self-examination.

DEAN FISHER

That man lives happy who can say, "I have lived!"

VELMA MARTIN

'Tis only noble to be good.

RICHARD FRAUS

Easy does it.

SALLY PAUL

A mind serene for contemplation.

Teachers Celebrate

In this year of 1953, Royal Oak High School passed another milestone in its history, its 25th birthday. To commemorate this silver anniversary, members of the Journalism class of the semester ending in January 1953, combined their talents and efforts with the Acorn Staff to publish a special anniversary issue of the Acorn.

This twelve-page edition was also dedicated to the first graduates of this high school. As reporters discovered, these 36 graduates had completed their high school education at Clara Barton, but it was from the present Royal Oak High School that they were graduated.

Fourteen teachers who have been with the high school during these 25 years expressed their opinions on the changes in students and in the high school itself. These fourteen are Mr. Hessel Tenhave, Miss Evelyn Schulte, Mr. Burt Baird, Mr. Don Cook, Miss Edythe Skinner, Mr. Leshe Edmunds, Mrs. Mina Land, Mr. George Dyer, Mrs. Catherine Dyer, Miss Ruth Kirk, Miss Eva Moore, Miss Hazel Geer, Miss Mildred Gibson, and Mr. Albert Wiese. It was generally agreed among them that students have changed and that ROHS isn't as huge as they once thought it to be.

It is quite possible that members of the June '53 graduating class will return to the high school to offer their services as faculty members as Miss Ruth Cowen, Mr. Bruce Feightner, Miss Marjorie Miller, Mr. Henry Garen, Mrs. Constance Crossman, and Mrs. Azola Wait have done. Stories on these graduates were carried in this issue.

Diplomas were handed to 8,995 seniors during this quarter of a century and of this number, six have achieved notable success in serving their community. ROHS is indeed proud of Mr. George Dondero, Mr. William Broomfield, Mr. Vern Horn, Mr. Frank McInnis, Mr. Owen Perkins, and Mr. John Muehl, also mentioned in the birthday edition.

The average Royal Oak High School student wonders what

Silver Anniversary

the "good old days" of which his parents speak so fondly were really like. Thus a comparison of styles, popular songs, and current movies were included in this anniversary issue. In 1928, the flapper was the fashionable girl and knickers were worn by the boys who dressed in style. Jewelry and nail polish were taboo.

Movie stars such as Ronald Coleman, Eddie Cantor, and Clara Bow headed the box-office attractions at the theaters. In another twenty five years, will there be another blonde billed as the second Marilyn Monroe?

Sports through the twenty-five years were also reviewed as were the other important events in the history of Royal Oak High School. Thanks are due to the Daily Tribune for the use of their files.

The cooperation and efforts of many people went into the making of this special issue. Started in November of 1952, the issue was first slated to be ready for distribution sometime in January. However, difficulties in receiving required information for the deadline made it necessary to set the date for April 24.

General publication was handled by Mary Lou Erickson and working under her were Carolyn Dodd, Judy Baur, Pat Sinesco, Brad Barnes, Cheryl Hubar, Lynne Clapp, Mona Jordan, Janet Landsberg, Marlene Cole, and Sondra Perkins. January 1953 graduates Emily Edmunds and Sharon Smith also assisted in the publication of this edition. The issue would never have become a reality without the ideas of Mr. L. A. Rosen, faculty advisor and Mr. Don Cook, the printer.

If all goes well, in another 25 years, Royal Oak High School will celebrate its golden anniversary as an institution of learning. Perhaps then the sons and daughters of the members of this June graduating class will publish another anniversary edition of the Acorn, laughing at what we call modern today as they deliver the paper door to door in their "flying saucers."

CLASSES

With the "Oak" as a log, we, the June 1953 graduating class, stand at the prow of a ship which is moving forward into new unknown waters. At this point we have accomplished only one goal. We have crossed the bay. As all of us scan the pages of our log, we recall what a pleasant trip we have made.

It seems like only yesterday that we boarded this huge and wonderful ship, the S.S. Royal Oak High School, as freshmen. Many of us meekly crept about its corridors and found ourselves unsteady as we started on our trip across the bay. We had to develop strong sea legs.

Then we were raised in rank to sophomores. The promotion felt good. Now we were becoming more sure of ourselves, and we know for sure that we felt a year older and, yes, maybe a year wiser. We had the makings of good sailors. By this time most of us had begun to chart a course to be followed in the future and began to think about the trip ahead of us on the water beyond the bay.

Another year brought another promotion, and we became known as juniors. We roamed the decks with assurance and felt like old sea hands. Each of us was preparing to follow the course we had chartered by taking instruction in the necessary subjects. Showing that we were proud to be a part of the crew of this ship, we sported our newly-acquired class rings.

This year we became top-ranking crew members, seniors. We enjoyed more parties and activities together. Some made reservations on other vessels which would be boarded when the bay had been crossed. We took inventory of the crew and found that some had left the ship and some new members had boarded at mid-stream.

Some of our class ventured ahead of the ship to explore what lies ahead; some stand on the top deck, eagerly scanning the horizon; some look neither behind nor ahead, but rejoice at their small journey's end; some hung onto the stern and were dragged along with the rest of the crew; some are swimming to reach the ship in time.

It was not always smooth sailing. We'll all admit that the water was a little choppy during exam week, but when exams were over we felt that the weather for sailing was better.

Soon we realized that the trip in this ship was coming to an end. The crew enjoyed its outing on the senior trip. It gave us a chance to test our sea legs. Convocation arrived and those among us who had crossed the bay with flags flying were rewarded. At Baccalaureate, prayers were offered to aid each of us in following our individual courses and reaching our appointed goals. Commencement marked our last night together as a class on the S.S. Royal Oak High School. We received our diplomas, certificates of our service on the good ship.

Now we have completed our four year journey. With the knowledge we have acquired from our instructors and guides as compasses and life jackets, we each board different ships to convey us on the courses that we have chosen. The anchors of these ships are lifted, and the sails are unfurled. We have left our out-grown shells by the unresting sea. Pictured next is our class. We have crossed the bay. The ocean lies before us.

Tom Sawyer is trying desperately to explain our foreign policies with other countries in Mrs. Miller's 1st hour Government class. Listening intently to his forceful manner are Sue Eschrig, Tom

Above, Mrs. Miller's Government class is busily underlining their American Observers. Engrossed in this work are, left to right, Jackie Annesser, Nola Colter, Marilyn Bearss, Carl Dennis, Sue Eschrig and Margaret Bennett. Below, Tom Carls looks rather relaxed reading to four girls: Marilyn Wagner, Joyce Cowin, Barbara McGregor, and Delores Peterson.

Streeter Remley and Jim King are measuring plane surfaces; Barbara Burton and Liz Ware in Miss Kirk's first hour Solid Geometry class.

Hubert White is explaining to Shirley Rife, Judy Roney and Hugh Dorris the trip he is going to take around the world.

School's out, School's out, Mr. Johnson lets the fools out. Too bad they have to come back tomorrow. Those in a rush are, left to right, Beverly Collins, Marge Bradshaw, Bernard Schwan, Sandra Strawn, Sandra Edmond, Wayne Wright, Keith Wilson, Fred Mester, Jerome LaFountain, Doug, Marsh.

John Kaehler seems to know all the answers in Miss Schulte's Geometry 2 class. In fact, he's such a whiz he was chosen to explain this difficult problem to Rosalie Derk, Shirley Krupkovich, Robert Kaehler and Phil Irvan. Think he'll teach them anything at all? ? ?

All these students are trying very hard to find a pleasant and pleasing book that would fit their individual personalities from the many books Miss Skinner has collected for her students thru the years she has been teaching. SPORTS

Now that the winter sports have drawn to a close, and the spring sports are on their way, the Royal Oak students will probably think back about the various Royal Oak sports thrills that took place from January to June.

First we will probably remember the success of the swimming team. How can we forget the natators very fine record of seven wins against only two losses and one tie. The two losses that we did have were to the powerful Fordson tank team. Even though we did lose to Fordson we put up a good fight during those meets. Losing was no disgrace because Fordson went on to be the 1953 state high school champs at the state meet held at East Lansing.

Royal Oak was tied for third with Ann Arbor in the state meet which was nothing to be ashamed of by any means. The Royal Oak relay team of Pete Eckel, Bruce Scott, and Tom Law took first place honors. Eckel was second in his specialty, the 50 yard free style. Tom Law and Don Blackburn finished third and fourth respectively in the 100 yard backstroke. Bruce Scott was fourth in the 200 yard breaststroke. During the season Royal Oak's relay team of Butch Stock, Law, and Eckel broke a state record with a time of 1:20.2. This state record was within .3 of a second away from the all-time national high school record. After Captain Stock graduated in January, Don Blackburn and diver Bill Lowe were elected captains for the remainder of the season. Included in the victories was an impressive 51-33 victory over Detroit Redford. This was especially pleasing because Redford was crowned as the Detroit city champs after the RO natators defeated them.

Now we will look at another winter sport which was not so successful in its season but still drew cheers from the Royal Oak fans. This is our basketball team. The five man team dropped eleven games while winning only four. The team was young, though, and more can be expected from them next season. Two of the outstanding players, both seniors, were Bob Sharp and Don Gmelin. Bob netted 253 points, including 20 points in the 86-46 regional loss to the class A champs, Fordson. Don didn't net quite as many shots but he benefitted the team a great deal on the floor.

Spring sports were then getting into full swing. Baseball, tennis, golf and track shaped up their teams. They all expected to have a successful year under the leadership of captains Bob Sharp for track, Harry Andreason and Fred Gokey for tennis, Lynn Martin for baseball and Lou McDaniel for golf. They have hard competition to beat in order to be successful teams, so we just had to wait and see!

The boys weren't the only sports minded group in the school. The GAA held a badminton tournament March 13, for all the schools and Royal Oak was only tied by Grosse Pointe. The deadlock with Grosse Pointe came in February. The GAA girls have done a lot of work in the swimming department such as plan a water show for the Royal Oak Carnival. Not only in badminton and swimming but also in basketball the girls excelled. A basketball tournament was held with Kingswood GAA this term, and Royal Oak GAA participated.

A strange thing in the way of sports happened at Royal Oak this year. Entering the pool in a care-free way some Friday was no longer safe to either boy or girl. For the first time in Royal Oak history, mixed swimming and gym classes were held. You may shudder at first but it seems that they were enjoyed by all who participated.

After the completion of our spring sports we will be ready to start again in the cycle of activity which seems to be most enjoyed by the student body and faculty—vacationing.

Sports have taken a big hand in making any school, whether the teams win, lose, or draw. The memories of the lessons which a student learns in school may tend to slip his mind from time to time, but the thrills and excitements which he experiences at the sports events will be lasting.

Royal Oak High School's 1952-53 basketball team played a lusterless season by winning but four games while losing eleven. Bob Sharp was the captain and led the Oaks scoring with 233 points in the fifteen game season. Bob also scored 20 points as the R.O. cagers lost 86-46 in the regionals to later state champs, Fordson. The RO victories were over Monroe, twice; Wyandotte, and Detroit Cooley. Cooley opened the season and proved an easy 49-39 victim of the Oak's attack.

After losses to Western, 63-72, and a 48-56 loss at Grosse Pointe, the Oak's won their record game by out-playing Monroe 57-47. Sharp hit for his highest point total of the year in a losing cause in their 54-55 loss to Denby. Bob scored 26 points. Losses to Wyandotte, 38-44; Highland Park, 41-58. Fordson, 44-58; arch-rival Ferndale, 42-47; and powerful Grosse Pointe, 44-60; preceded their third win of the year. Sharp, Roger Sides, and Don Rowe with 20, 10, and seven points respectively, paced the Oak's in their close 51-48 decision at Monroe.

The second Wyandotte game followed the Monroe victory. The Oak cagers won their fourth and last win of the 1952-53 year. The score was R.O. 51, Wyandotte 44, with Don Gmelin, Sides, and Sharp netting 14, 12, and 11 points respectively. Hazel Park pinned back R.O. by the score of 55-48 on the strength of a 20 point last period.

Smile boys! Lining up for the beauty contest are: left to right, Pete Eckel, Bill Lowe, Bruce Scott, Don Blackburn and Tom Law. Pete Eckel was second in the 50 yard freestyle at the state meet. Bill Lowe is our top diver. Bruce Scott was fourth in the 100 yard breaststroke. Don Blackburn and Tom Law placed fourth and third respectively in the 100 yard backstroke.

Swimming

Royal Oak's crack swimming aggregation finished its 1952-53 tank season holding second place in the Border Cities League and third place in the state meet finals. Under the coaching of Art Solow, and captained by Don Blackburn and Bill Lowe, the natators posted a 7 won, 2 lost, and one tied record in the BCL competition. Ann Arbor and RO both took 29 points at East Lansing for a third place tie. Both losses of the season were at the hands of the powerful Tractors from Fordson. The tie was on Feb. 5 at Grosse Pointe.

Tom Law and Pete Eckel could be counted on for points every meet. Eckel's fastest time of the year came in the season's final meet of the year against Fordson. He set an RO pool record and only missed the state record by .2 seconds when he sped the 50 yards in 23.8. They also came through again at East Lansing Eckel taking second in the 50 yard freestyle, and Law placed third in the 100 yard backstroke, followed by Blackburn in fourth. Bruce Scott, who capably took over the breaststroke duties when Stock left, placed fourth in the 100 yard breaststroke, and RO's medley relay team of Law, Scott, and Eckel was first. Diver Bill Lowe, and backstroker Don Blackburn, along with Rene Hamel, all graduate in this June's class.

Bill Lowe seems to be flying high as he does a one and one-half somersault pike. He was co-captain of this year's swimming team.

The breaststroke seems to be a lot of fun to many people, but by the expression on Bruce Scott's face it must be a little harder than we think.

Watch out boys or you will sink. The floating foursome are Tom Robertson, Don Smith, Jim Burns, and Roger Schroeder who are all juniors.

ACTIVITIES

As those last weeks of high school drew to a close and senior activities crowded out all traces of homework, we all looked toward the future and the world outside the class room, and dreamed the dreams of tomorrow's successes. Yet, that last day when we walked the corridors for the final time and grasped that final glimpse of the old school, faded pictures of all the fun we had had flashed before our eyes.

We remembered those days, when we got out of our classes to decorate for the dances, and then the dances themselves, Lit and Commencement; that wonderful Easter concert and the Anniversary issue of the Acorn. We recalled the trip to Mackinac, that was taken despite all rumors to the contrary, and the sittings for the senior pictures. We remember the senior finals (Oh! how could we forget!) and the Class Night dinner & program, when the more talented among us performed, the cries of protest that went up when the senior play was called off, and always the senior parties scattered throughout the semester.

We recalled those classes and teachers who were our favorites and that unfinished homework for those who weren't; that fight to get up the down stairway and that last minute rush down the hall. We remember those open houses where everyone came, and the slumber parties where nobody slept. We recalled the small talk over malts at Dan's and the pizza at Mario's.

We remembered those hours spent after school while working on the Acorn and the Oak and the noise and ice cream that accompanied rushes to meet the deadlines. We remembered the clubs, with their crazy initiations, each striving to outdo the others in dreaming up more fantastic feats for initiates to perform—doing the Charleston in the front hall and polishing the traditionally dirty shoes of the older members—and the water ballet show, with its near professional swimmers.

We remember the planning, rushing and confusion and finally the satisfaction of putting on a school carnival, the first in twenty years, with its television advertising and jubilant queen; and how everyone stuffed themselves with pop and pop corn, hot dogs and Sloppy Joes, candy and ice cream, and the wonderful variety show and all the fun we had playing miniature golf.

And we remembered convocation, when the more honored among us walked to the stage to receive their awards and baccalaureate when for nearly the last time we gathered together as a class. Finally came commencement. And suddenly we weren't students anymore but graduates ready to go out and serve.

Then scenes from our earlier high school days flashed before our mind; the first day of school when cautiously and a little fearfully, we explored the vastness of the school and looking up into the faces of those higher classmen, marveled at the sureness of their smiles, and ducked when we heard that dreaded "Hey, Freshie." We remembered those first final exams and how, determining to pass them, we studied long into the night, only to find out they weren't as bad as everyone claimed. And the Roman Banquet, when we tripped all over our togas trying to get those "Romans" served, and then discovered that the food was gone when we sat down to eat.

We remembered those first efforts of the newly-formed debate team, when defeat seemed so frequent and victory so rare; but they didn't finish so badly in the end and a new precedent was established which we sincerely hope continues.

We remembered that semester when the school was on two shifts and everyone you knew seemed to be on the other shift; and the Spanish club fiestas and mad scramble for candy after the pinata was broken; and those hectic days when the Future Teachers club members took over the classes.

These were both the traditional club and school activities and the ones which we helped to establish; these were the experiences of our high school days, pleasures of the past. And though we know the future holds new ones just as exciting and just as much fun, somehow they will never seem the same.

Band

ROHS is known throughout the state for many outstanding things and among these is our band, which helps keep the school spirit up at football games and basketball games.

The ROHS band played for all the football games, the Lions game, last December, and they had a concert April 15. This yearly concert is sponsored by the band boosters. The proceeds from the concert went to the fund for sending two students to the National Music Camp at Interlochen; also, the fund provides for two students to go to Wayne University and summer band school.

There are two different bands: one is the varsity, and the other the pep training, both being marching bands. The pep band, which received new jackets this semester, is made up of students who enjoy music enough to take off from their own time to play for basketball games and pep assemblies.

The traditional idea of having officers in an organization is also carried out in the band. The officers are Franchot Shein, president, Maynard Hatch, vice president, Judy Reimer, secretary, David Muhn and Bill Collins are librarians; Douglas Cook is setup chairman, and Michael Myers publicity manager.

The man who is responsible for the success of the ROHS band is the leader Mr. Al Garen, who has been directing the band for the last four years. Working under Mr. Garen as student director is Judy Guy.

The band boosters, who are greatly responsible for the future of the band also sponsor a summer band. The majorettes who march along with the band are: drum major Judy Reimer, Judy Arnold, Sharon Jones, and Barbara Sabo, majorettes.

A Cappella

Royal Oak High School's A Cappella Choir has had a busy year. Let's take a look at what they've done from September until June.

Their first engagement was the Senior Tea in October. Next on the program was the annual Christmas recording at CKLW which was heard on Christmas Eve at 9:05 p.m. In quick succession came the Christmas Concert, which was given twice, the Christmas program for the student body and the annual caroling at the Wayne Oak and Bank.

January came and with it Commencement and Baccalaureate, both in which the Choir participated.

This term started off with a bang. On the first day of the new term the choir members and their director G. Bruce Feighner gave a program for the PTA. Next on the agenda was the District Festival for all schools in this district which was held here in our auditorium. The choir was invited by the judges to be qualified to go on to the State Festival in May.

The choir participated in an Easter Concert of Sacred music on March 29. They provided music for the Senior Tea in April and went on to the State Festival in May. Clara Barton Junior High School and Jane Adams Junior High School both invited our choir to sing for them. Mr. Feighner feels that singing at the junior high schools was one of the most important things the choir did, as these students are the future music students of Royal Oak High School.

Then in June once again came Commencement and Baccalaureate in which the choir took part. Besides singing as a group the choir splits into smaller groups and also goes out as soloists. The groups or soloists sing at different community groups and churches.

Soloists from the choir participated in the District Festival for Soloists in March and also in the State Festival in April.

Every summer a number of students go to Interlochen Music Camp, but this summer a group will also be going to Michigan Normal College, where another camp will be in session.

This semester's officers were: Tom Sherman, president; Sandy Williams, secretary; Jerry Penland, treasurer, and Ed Krecow, sergeant-at-arms.

All in all our school can be proud of the A Cappella Choir and the showing it has made for the Royal Oak High School.

Boys' Choir

As president of the boys choir is Don Bennett, Secretary is Owen Wennie, Myron Coan is Treasurer and Jay McCormick is the Sergeant-at-Arms. In girls choir Bette Barnett takes the president's seat; Margaret Bennett is secretary; treasurer is Gail McCluskey and Judy Guest is Sergeant-at-Arms.

Girls' Choir

Both the Girls and Boys Choir have been doing a great job. The first showing they made this semester was in the Easter Concert, and they were a great success. In the District Festivals both choirs were ranked with three yesses and they went on to the State Festivals, which were held at Michigan State College, May 8.

After 35 years of service in Royal Oak High, Mr. and Mrs. Dyer are leaving. Mr. Dyer was a graduate of Caro High School in Caro, Mich. He attended Michigan State for one year and spent his last three years in Albion. While in college he was an honor student in science and participated in football as the captain of the team.

Graduating from college in 1913 he majored in physics and math, then taught school in Aurora and Kankakee, Ill. His attention was diverted at this time to a better school, so he entered Royal Oak in 1919. Mr. Dyer had enough work to keep him busy his first years at Royal Oak, teaching botany, physics, chemistry, and general science, as well as coach of the football, baseball and basketball teams. He contributed also to the school by being the athletic director until 1933, the senior class advisor from 1926-1944 and the first debating coach.

In 1942 Mr. Dyer changed Catherine Gunn's name to Mrs. Dyer. Mrs. Dyer graduated from Brown City high school. She took an examination for a teachers certificate. Then she taught for five years in rural schools in Sanilac county. She decided she would go to college about this time so she entered Michigan State Normal in Ypsilanti and stayed there two years. Then she too sought one of the better schools and came to Royal Oak to teach mathematics in 1919.

In 1925 she got her A. B. degree from the U. of M. and in 1932 she secured her master's degree from Columbia University. Being the Dean of Women from 1929-1934 and being the Senior advisor since 1922 has added to her service to the school.

The Dyer's have nine grandchildren and this keeps them quite busy. We will all miss their counselling and teaching which has helped us as well as countless others.

Good Luck,
Mr. and Mrs. Dyer
